

CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Baseline Assessment for the project:
Regional Civil Society Organisations Strengthening 2017 - 2021

Save the Children Country Office in Kosovo/a (SCIK) as part of its project “Regional CSO Strengthening 2017 - 2021” is seeking the services of a qualified independent consultant/ research company to carry out the baseline study of the project in Moldova, implemented by our partner Child Rights Information Centre (CRIC) in Chisinau. The objective of this study is to gather relevant data for project indicators as described below against which to monitor and assess the progress and effectiveness of the project during implementation and after the project is completed.

No.	Indicator	Measurement methods
1	Number of child participation practices in organization’s activities and processes (as part of all processes)	Identify the number of activities and processes of the organization that apply child participation practices against the number of total activities and practices of the organization.
2	Occasions where CSOs have supported each other in developing organizational and thematic capacities	Collect (interview) and compare (reports) data from the organization and identify the occasions of organizational collaboration and support of partner organization of the project with each other, as well as external collaborations in developing organizational and thematic capacities of non-project organizations.
3	Number of reported cases of violence to mandated institutions by children and citizens	Perform desk research to identify this information on country level (Moldova) of partner CRIC.
4	Percentage of use of violence in targeted schools	Collect data through standard questionnaire in partner’s target schools and perform data analysis of said data and report the result expressed as a percentage. The percentage change will be assessed at next comparative assessment - not subject to this consultancy. Sample size per target school is n=30. Tool to be provided by SCIK.

Deadline for Application: 31.10.2017 at 16:30 EET.

For more information, and the full Terms of Reference, please visit the official page of Save the Children Office in Kosovo/a.